A RECEIVER FOR CHARLES E. RUNK.

THERE MAY BE SOME EQUITY IN THE LATTER'S PROPERTY AFTER CLAIMS ARE SATISFIED. Arthur M. King has been appointed receiver in supplementary proceedings for Charles E. Runk, real estate operator of No. 47 Broad-st., and treasurer of the Harlem Casino Company, on the ap-plication of Anna C. Runk. He is a large stockholder in the National Wall Paper Company, holding $57,000 of debenture stock and $650,000 to $700,000 common stock. The latter has never paid s dividend, but the former pays 8 per cent annual dividends. The debenture stock has been pledged security for money lent to him; $50,000 to the Chemical National Bank, $5,000 to the West Side Bank, $25,000 to W. C. C. Lartz and L. C. Kuhner, nd the balance to the Yorkville Bank. The common stock is all pledged to Frederick

Seck, his father-in-law, as security for money due im. Mr. Runk has assigned to Mr. Beck equities in tife insurance policies of $90,000, on which other par-ties have lent $11,500, and also conveyed real estate in New-York and Brocklyn to Mr. Beck. He has not had an accounting with Mr. Beck as to the on in real estate transactions together. He gave Jacob Ruppert a mortgage on property at Moun lope. Westchester County, to secure a note for which he had indorsed, and he also assigned claim of $16,000 against the Harlem Casino Com pany to Mr. Ruppert. Mr. Runk also gave a mort-gage of $5,500 to Emil Unger on No. 288 Fifth-ave., after a mortgage of $120,000, as security for money

Mr. Runk also mortgaged some property to his Mr. Runk also mortgaged some property to his wife, and made a mortgage on real estate to secure her for $25,000 debenture stock of the National Wall Paper Company, which she let him have to pledge with the Yorkville Bank to secure a loan of $20,000. Mr. Runk, in his examination, said that after satisfying the claims secured by him, there might be some equity in his property. Judge Machean also extended this receivership to include a judgment obtained by the Chemical National Bank of $15,003 against Mr. Runk.

AN INDIAN CHIEF AT CITY HALL.

Arrayed in feathers and war paint, with toma-hawk and war clubs, Chief Running Deer, of the Mohawk tribe of Indians, with five Sioux, called at the City Hall yesterday to pay their respects to Mayor Strong and smoke the pipe of peace. With the Indians was the old Indian scout, Cap-

Chief Running Deer's associates were Split Bark, Crow Foot, American Horse, Long Feather and Red Deer. The Chief wore hanging from a chain the famous treaty medal given to the Mohawks by President Martin Van Buren in 1837.

The Indians are members of a theatrical troupe. They did not see the Mayor, as he was busy at a board meeting. Job Hedges, his secretary, did the honors.

A BOND BURNED FOR WASTE PAPER.

The trial of a suit brought by John Collins against the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company to compel the company to issue to him a duplicate of a bond No. 11.404, for $1,000, with interest coupons attached, was begun yesterday before Justice Anderson in Special Term, Part V. of the Supreme urt. The bond for which the duplicate is wanted a a 190-year bond, and Mr. Collins alleges that was burned by his wife as waste paper. The intiff declares that the company has refused issue a duplicate without security being given protect it from loss.

TWO ITALIAN WORKMEN HURT.

East One-hundred-and-forty-ninth-st., and Luigi Moriando, thirty-two years old, of One-hundred-andsixty-sixth-st. and Third-ave., employed in the exninth-st. and Franklin-ave., while cleaning a lot of broken rock from the bottom of the excavation, were blown up by the accidental explosion of a dynamite carrings yesterday morning and sustained scribble injuries. A blast had been exploded, and the two Italians were cleaning up the broken rock with picks, when one of them struck a dynamite cartridge, which exploded and blew both men several feet into the air. They were picked up unconscious and taken to Pordham Hospital, where Pamella was found to have severe wounds about the head and Morlando injuries about the body. The police made an investigation, but made no arrests. The injured men may recover.

John Gerrity, a plasterer, thirty-five years old, of No. 274 East Ninety-fourth-st., was knocked down and severely injured while endeavoring to stop a runaway horse on Manhattan-ave, shortly before noon yesterday. Gerrity was at work at One-hundred-and-fourth-st. and Manhattan-ave. when he saw the horse, which was attached to a business on, start from One-hundred-and-third-st. and

Two women were crossing the avenue at One-huned-and-fourth-st. at the time, and Gerrity, after outing to them and causing them to hurry to the Ik, seized the horse by the bridle as he came The bridle broke, and Gerrity fell to the roadway, directly in front of the horse, which stepped (ull weight upon him, breaking two of his ribs on the right side and fracturing both bones of the lower Fight leg.

The horse continued to One-hundred-and-fifth-st., where Philip Little, a street-sweeper, waved his broom in front of the animal, causing him to run upon the sidewalk, where he fell, and was caught by Augustus Pippoe, a carpenter, who was working near by. Before a policeman arrived on the scene the driver of the horse appeared, and drove away before any one could find our who he was. Gerrity was taken to the Manhattan Hospital suffering greatly, and it will be some time before he will recover.
